“ I used to deliver flowers for Cason's & got to deliver to Coco ALL the time & we would talk & visit a lot. She was a dear lady & I always enjoyed our visits. My deepest sympathy to her family.

“ My deepest sympathy and prayers are with Coco's family. Coco was like a member of the Walker family and was my mom, Doloris', dearest friend for many years. I can still hear her calling my Mom "Er Doloris" and then just laughing! This world will miss her. I loved her as did my children and grandchildren. God bless you always, Coco!

“ Chuck and I were sad to hear of Mrs. Lee's death. I had known her a long time but Chuck met her when she bought his parents Townhouse. He fell in love with her from the start. She was a dear lady and so helpful to so many. We will be praying for the family in the days ahead and may God's loving arms be around you and hold you close.

*In Christian love,

“ I'm not sure what to say yet but I wanted to say something. I am so sorry for the loss Coco's family is dealing with right now. I loved her very much. She made me clothes, let me climb the big tree out back, she shared chilled chocolate covered graham crackers and Fresca with me. Coco taught me several things about life as I grew up and she was always quick to give a smile and a big hug. I still quote things that she told me over the years. I will miss Coco more than words can convey.
