

Damon K. Cooper

January 11, 1964 - May 18, 2022

Damon Kyle Cooper departed from us on May 18th 2022. A loving husband, trusted brother, devoted son and amazing friend to all. A Texas native, Damon was born in Bridge City, Texas and graduated from Lloyd V. Berkner High School, Richardson, Texas in 1982. He attended the University of North Texas and Lamar University where he received a Bachelors of Science in Commercial Art. It was during this time at Lamar University where he met his love, Deborah Lynn Pate, whom he was devoted to for thirty-three years of marriage. Damon and his wife pursued their passions for art, music, nature and life during their time together.

As a gifted artist, musician, and carpenter, Damon was able to connect with a large genre of people. His innate ability to capture the character of a person or subject in both photography and paint paralleled his interactions with people. As trusted brother and friend, Damon's ability to empathize was second to none. His curiosity and fascination with instruments and sounds carried to his curiosity of people, their stories and their passions. He was a true Renaissance man at heart, and often challenged himself with new experiences. His comforting smile, kind words, and colorful sense of humor will truly be missed.

Damon Kyle Cooper is preceded in death by Harold Wayne Cooper, Sr., father. He is survived by his wife, Deborah Lynn Cooper of Kerens, Tx. His mother, Brenda Cooper of Nacogdoches, Texas. Three brothers Noel Dade Cooper and wife Dana, Harold Wayne Cooper, Jr. and wife Carlotta, and Erik Brendan Cooper and wife Rachel. Nephews: Zachary, Christian, Colt, and Kyle. Nieces: Emily, Abigail, Amory, and Bailey.
