“ Dane, you will be missed and loved by many. My thoughts and prayers are with your Wife and family at this time.

“ What to express the sadness of a life lost so young? You were loved by many. A real people person. Never a stranger did you meet. Leaving behind a legacy and a trail of broken hearts, as you enter into your eternal life. Your light will not grow dim even as you are not here to carry it. It will be carried rather by the people whose lives you touched. Passed on from one to another with a tear and smile. A smile of the thought and memory of you with the tear of a mournful sorrow. Alas it not goodbye for we shall one day meet with again, so I say unto you farwell my friend until that day.

“ Dane you will be missed and was loved by your friends and family. I remember when I first met you. I thought you were a cocky little dude who had awful music lol. In time I came to love you like a kid brother. Over the years our group split up and went in different directions but never far from each other's hearts and minds. You will be missed my friend.

Kim, may God embrace you and the children in this great time of loss. He knows what you need and can give you the comfort you seek far greater than anyone here on earth...although we are all here for you as well. We love you and see our hugs and prayers.

“ My heart broke when I heard the news that you were gone. While I only met you briefly when we lost Michael, I remembered that big grin and the instant feeling of liking you and what a nice young man you were. I pray for your wife, your beautiful children, your parents, Cassie and your grandparents, that God will grant them strength to get through this most agonizing time. I have no doubt you and Michael are together, brother's reunited and taking care of each other until the rest of us can come home. Fly with the angels.....

“ Kim,

You and the kids are in our prayers. I was always proud of Dane for his commitment to you and his children.

You know that we love you,

Di

“ It's been about 10 years since I saw him last. Then he found me online and it was nice getting back in touch with him. He's still as nice as ever. My sadness is for his wife and young children. Stay strong and believe God has a plan. God bless.

“ We went through so much together, it is almost impossible to imagine Dane not being there. Kim, hold on to the happy memories and the love you shared with him. Stormy, Chris, and Mackenzie, your Daddy loved you all soooo soo much!! He is in Heaven, no doubtedly, boasting to the angels about how proud he is of you. I love you all and you are in my prayers. Call me for anything!!!

“ I just found out about Dane. Carlos and Gladys I am sorry for your loss. I truly know how loss feels. Mom's anniversary death date was August 16 too so I was in mourning that day at the cemetery. I would like to say it gets better with time but you never forget. I cant imagine with a child. God Bless and take care.

“ Our memories of Dane are from when he was just a little boy, but through the years we have thought about him and wondered about him. When our granddaughter would be at our house, she and Dane played together. Although we never had the opportunity to know Dane as a grown young man, it doesn't lessen our sympathy that we feel for his wife and family. I pray that God will give you the strength to get through the days ahead. And remember, no one can take away your memories. God bless.
