“ Jerry, Abigail and Jessica,

*I am sad that Darlene is no longer here, but relieved that she is no longer suffering. I remember her most during the days of raising the girls together. She was always ready to help and lend herself in anything that was needed. My favorite times were the times we shared as room moms and taking the girls to Six Flags....she was a blast and I loved her. During those years I could always count on her showing up at my door on Christmas morning with homemade Apricot fried pies. My prayers of comfort are with you all.
Love, Debbie Mc.*

“ Dear Jerry Abigail Jessica and Family. Your wife, mother, was such a sweet lady. I knew her quite well. I remember her home in Rice. She was stocked with everything when it came to anything someone needed. Darlene had it. The last time I saw Darlene was at Heritage Oaks she seemed to be so happy and always smiling. May God give you all the peace that only he can. I pray the days ahead are filled with all of her good memories. May God Bless you all during this sad time.
