“ Dave was one of the finest men I've ever known and he will be deeply missed.

This poem reminds of the kind of person he was ...

THE MEASURE OF A MAN

Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?

Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?

*These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.*

Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?

And - How did he play his God-given part?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?

To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?

Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?

But - Had he befriended those really in need?

Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?

But - How many were sorry when he passed away?

These are the things that measure the worth

Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

“ I remember the good times there were for David and I from our first squirrel hunt in the Fannett woods with Daddy and PaPa at about ages 6 & 8. And shortly thereafter, our first pole barge trip down the Atchafalaya River near Krotz Springs, LA to the fishing camp with the Frederick klan. And after that there were many, many more hunting and fishing trips together. We had the fun and Mom had all the worries. I remember all the basketball and football games at Meadowcreek Park in Houston. We always had fun together growing up and still enjoyed each other growing old. I will miss you David but know you are no longer in pain or suffering and can relax. Go enjoy hunting and fishing in heaven with Daddy, PaPa and Uncle Boots. I'll see you there later. Love ya, Joe.
