“ Dave was a GM Arlington, Paint Dept (both main and final paint) employe I could always count on. He was always willing to go the extra mile. He had an incredible sense of humor and could always make me laugh. I knew Dave was retiring and planned to enjoy his time. I'm so sorry for your loss. God bless and May Dave Rest in Eternal Peace!

“ I've been the Gill's neighbor for the last 3 years. Dave was always very friendly and we enjoyed a few chats out in the front of our yards on quite a few occasions. I am in shock at his passing and my heart goes out to Nona and the rest of the family. Prayers for blessings and comfort in this difficult time - Ed Jeffery

“ I am David’s first cousin. My most vivid recollection of David goes back over half a century ago. I was sent upstairs to see what was keeping David and my brother Dennis from joining everyone for dinner. I found them in our older cousin Dick’s room, perusing his collection of Playboy magazines. I was 8. David was 11. Some number of minutes later, someone yelled for all three of us to move it along.

“ I’m still in shock over his passing. He was so full of life and loved being a prankster. He gave us all at GM so many laughs and brightened our days. I’m. Praying for you Nona .

“ Gill Family, I am at a loss. Nona, I’m sending you love and lots of hugs. David (and Nona) were some of the Mudbugs biggest and faithful fans. From our very first season they both stepped up to play on the Bugs co-ed softball team. Genuinely a very nice guy. Much love and we’ll all miss David! Love you Nona. CW

“ Dave was my first good friend following my family's move to Shreveport. Mr. & Mrs. Gill Dave and his sister Kay lived right around the corner from us. Dave and I would pester Kay to take us to McDonald's in her green Mustang. The last time I saw Dave was at a get together at Gene Savoie's house in Austin, what a good time we had! I am so sorry to hear of his passing and I pray his family finds comfort in God's grace.
