“ Mr. Hill was a good man. When I was first starting my business, he was one of my first clients. I would also always work it so that I would have a few extra minutes to chat with him. He always had a smile on his face. One of my best memories was the day that he asked me if I knew of any jobs available. There was a guy dating his daughter and he wanted to get him out of town. I introduced David Bailey to Mr. Brown in Waxahachie. That was not far enough away, for David and Dianna were soon married and the rest is history. Everyone that knew Mr. Hill loved him, and we will all miss him.

“ Mr. Hill was an inspiration to anyone around him. I have known him all my life, grew up down the street from him and his family when we all lived in Dallas. Then my brother David married Diane, Mr. Hill's daughter and the families have been intertwined ever since. He was truly an inspiration to everyone he met! I know he changed my brother David's life at a young age, giving him wisdom and guidance in the work area and was a loving neighbor to my mom for years at Navarro Mills Lake. There are just no words to describe Mr. Hill, except an excellent family man, neighbor, friend and inspiration to all that new him! He will never be forgotten!
