“ *Miss Jean you are in my thoughts and prayers Wayne and I were like brothers growing up from riding ponies going through the apprenticeship program. Doing things that drove you crazy the whole time.
I have so many good memories Neva and Paul you guys take care of yourself. I know we were all truly Blessed growing up on Seale Road

“ It is too soon. Wayne he always said that they learned how to talk in a hurricane loud some times but a true son to his Mother and father a friend and brother to me.

I first worked with his father when I meet Wayne, he never meet a stranger and was not quick at judging people but when you became a friend he was a true friend one you could count on to help someone out in time of need. I first asked his Dad (David) how you become a Mason he said you just did, that was all it took. They took me in like a son soon Paul and Wayne became brothers and there Dad (David) was very proud we all became brothers. The Jones family makes a person fill as if you were family. I will miss Wayne and David very much. My condolences to the family

“ I couldn' believe this could have happened when I read he obituary in the newspaper. I have tried to reach you to tell you I love you and I am praying for you. I know Wayne did a lot around the farm and did for you too. It just breaks my heart.

I there is anything I can do, PLEASE CALL. Im always here for you. i have tried to get a hold of Uncle Mickey, but haven't gotten him yet.

We will be praying for you during this difficult time. I love you!
