

David Levon Smith

June 5, 1947 - February 23, 2025

David Levon Smith, age 77, was born in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, to parents Tas and Mary Smith. He passed away on February 23, 2025, at Country Meadows Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, in Corsicana, TX.

After graduating from high school in Baton Rouge, David enlisted in the Air Force, and achieved the rank of sergeant, proudly serving as an aircraft mechanic. Upon his return to civilian life, he settled in Corsicana, embarking on a successful career as the owner of his own trucking company. He later worked as the Circulation Manager for the Corsicana Daily Sun, where he made lasting connections within the community.

David was preceded in death by his parents, first wife Suzanne and an infant son, and second wife Laura. He leaves a brother Carl, son Michael, daughter Kristen, and grandson Aiden as well as several first cousins.

David was always grateful to say he knew Jesus well. He enjoyed being a Texas cowboy, and a fishing pole often called his name. He is now reunited with his Savior and loved ones and friends who have gone to heaven before him. He will be fondly remembered for his strong faith, kind heart, and unwavering dedication to those he loved.

Cremation arrangements are under the direction of Griffin-Roughton Funeral

Home. His full military funeral will take place on Wednesday, March 26, 2025 at 1:15pm, at Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery, where he will be laid to rest with the honor he so greatly deserves.

“ David was the strongest man I think I've ever known. What a great man with such joy & peace all about him. I'm thankful he is now in the presence of Jesus and is in no more pain. I'll see you in a little while, David. Until heaven. You rest now & enjoy your new home. Sincerely,
Terri Bailes

“ David was our oldest cousin. Every time he came to visit at our grandmothers in Jackson, MS, we had a great time playing with all the little cousins. One memory is visiting his family in Baton Rouge and seeing the sights there. We have some pictures. So thankful he loved Jesus and that showed in how he took care of both his wives who had terminal cancer. He took care of everyone else. I know he is rejoicing in heaven with our grandmother, his mom, and other relatives and friends who knew Jesus. Love you, 'cuz.

“ David and I became great friends over the years. Always had a smile on his face that left a lasting impression. We were friends on Facebook so I could always keep up with him. I so hated to see this. RIP my friend. Diane Douglas
