“ Jerry Don, I am sorry to hear of the loss of your father. I had met him a couple of times though my Grandmother, Clessie Warren, who was friends with your mother (from the bakery). We are never prepared to give up the parents who supported us and guided us through the good and bad times. The first thing I thought of when I saw his obituary was the coronation in elementary school when you and I were dance partners to the song "Comin Through the Rye". Don't you know our parents were sitting in the audience beaming with pride at our performance? It's those memories of good times and simple pleasures that keep our loved ones forever in our hearts. Part of your Dad will live on through you and your children and grandchildren. God grant you peace and comfort. Cathy

“ I will always remember Dewey fondly...

Daisy, Jerry--- I am so sorry to hear about this Please know that you are all in my prayers and that I will continue to think of you often in the days ahead.

Dewey is where we wish we could all be right now, in a place where there is no pain, and no sorrow...he will be at the gates of Heaven waiting for you when you make that journey and guide you as only one who has already made that journey can do

"think of him living on as dear, in the love of there as the love of here"
