“ I just found out Dirk passed away in 2013. We went to Lee Elementary school many many years ago. I just posted on Nada's & I don't want to repeat myself, but I have wondered for so many years where Dirk & Nada moved off to. I remember going to a birthday party at their house on 4th Ave. Down the street from Lee school. It was a total surprise when I drove by their beautiful headstones. May they both rest in the arms of our Lord & savior. I haven't seen you guys in 60 years, but I pray we will get to catch up & what a day of rejoicing that will be. ❤️🙏🙏🙏

“ Dirk had an infectious smile and laugh. He fought a hard battle and continued laughing and joking, keeping his family laughing. Dirk will be missed, but that smile and laughter will live on in our hearts forever. He is now in the arms of the angels and will not be in pain anymore. God loves you, Dirk. I love you, too.

“ Dirk had an infectious smile and laugh, that will be missed. He suffered a long time and hard. He fought the battle well. He was brave, continued to laugh and joke, making his family laugh. God took him home and his suffering is over and I do believe we will hear that laughter and see his smile forever. Dirk, love you and rest in the arms of the angels.
