“ I was saddened to learn last night of the passing of a friend and mentor, Don Wade.

I have often reflected with friends and family how Don influenced my early life. Whether it be to play and sing R&R and Country with Don, or to sit and sip a little coffee and solve the world's problems, and to listen and take advice from someone just enough older than myself to actually listen, Don was a major part of my adolescence. I'll always love ya bro. God bless.

“ Sorry to hear about Don. We spend many nites watching TV at his parents home.
They had one of the first TV's in Town.

Don could play a mean guitar. He and Benny Earl won a lot of contests at the old Ideal theater in Corsicana.

We will not be able to attend the service. We have another commitment.
