“ As a retired member of the Conroe Police Department, I had the pleasure of working for Chief Massey. He was a great chief and really cared about his employees. Chief Massey was instrumental in getting the police department moved into new quarters and out of the old city hall into a renovated post office building. To hear of his passing is a sad day and I ask that God bless his wife and family in their time of need.

“ I remember when he was Chief of Police for Conroe and we would have the Christmas parties and he was the life of the party. He would dance with all of us and he never acted like he was more than we were. He was a good Chief and a great man. May God be with his family in this time of loss.

“ I was on a long anticipated trip in New York City with my brother Jeremy when I received word that my grandfather had gone to heaven. We could not return in time for the services. We missed the funeral by about three hours.

Granddaddy enjoyed spoiling me on the sly. When I was being scolded or disciplined by my family as a child, he was the first to put an end to that. If I was told that I couldn't eat at McDonalds, or see a movie, or get that toy that I wanted, he would always take me to do those things to spite everyone who said I could not.

Some of my fondest memories were hanging out with him at the police station. He gave me my own police i.d. and an office next to him when I would visit him in the summer. I had my own name plate that said "Chief's Aid". He would make all of his sargeants check in with me so that I could give them orders... and to my surprise, they always complied.

He taught me to swim, how to tie a tie, how to drive, and when I was old enough,... he made sure he had "the talk" with me so that I would be an honest man. "The talk" was a good one considering that I have been married for sixteen years as of this month.

You will be missed, Granddaddy... Have fun in heaven, and give 'em hell. :)

“ We were so sorry to hear about Don, our hearts go out to you all. My memories go back to when ya'll lived by Fannin and I would come over to play with Susie. What awesome memories we are left with. I can see the Happy Reunion he had with Susie. Two Beautiful Angels to watch over you all now. There is no greater loss than a Husband and a Daddy. I have been there for Mom and Dorothy, it's so hard but you get through it. Time and the love of Family and Friends help, I'm sure ya'll know this though. I just wanted ya'll to know my heart goes out to each of you and you will be in my prayers. God Bless You All
