“ My sympathy and prayers will be with you in your loss of your loved one. Don was a good man, mason, and councilmember. I was proud to have worked with him on the city council in Angus and to have been friends with him.

May God Bless and be with you in your time of need.

“ Don was our closest and dearest long time friend. We were neighbors in Dallas back in the sixties, our families went on vacations together, we camped together and were Masonic brothers together.
He gave me my 25 yr. masonic pin and I gave him his 25 yr. masonic pin. I will truly miss him as a friend and a brother.
Good bye worthy brother.
