

Donald Craig King

December 3, 1954 - March 19, 2018

Donald Craig King of Purdon, 63, went to be with the Lord March 19, 2018 in Waco, Texas. He was born December 3, 1954 to Joseph Marcellus King and Wanda Green King in Houston, Texas. He is survived by his loving wife Jacklyn King of Purdon, Texas; daughter and husband Kari and Neil Junco and grandchild Logan Junco of Garland, Texas; brother and wife Mike and Sherry King of Holly Ranch Lakes, Texas; sister and husband Marci and Gary Yancey of Huntsville, Texas; nephews Justin Yancey of Rowena, Texas and Tyler Yancey of O'Donnell, Texas; and many more extended nieces and nephews.

Donald started his life in Houston and moved to Huntsville with his family where he graduated from Huntsville High School in 1974. He then attended Texas A & M where he received his Bachelor's degree in engineering. He later studied at Sam Houston State University where he received his Master's degree in business administration. Donald was sworn in as a Certified Public Accountant in 2000. Donald worked for the Texas State Comptroller of Public Accounts where he met his wife. Upon retirement to his farm in Purdon, Texas he and Jackie spent many hours tending their cattle and chickens, dedicating time to the Republican Party, and studying the word of their Lord Jesus Christ. His favorite pastime was being a vigilant citizen in Navarro County Government. After a brief illness, he died and was buried in New Pursley Cemetery in Pursley, Texas March 20, 2018, surrounded by loving friends and family. He will be remembered for his humble and kind nature, his love of country and the Constitution, and his love for and trust in his Savior Jesus Christ by those who knew him well.

Graveside service was 4pm Tuesday, March 20, 2018 at New Pursley Cemetery.

“ On all the occassions I was with Donald and Jackie, he was so thoughtful, kind, and smiling. He could be very quiet (while we talked endlessly), but definitely appreciated his words of wisdom. He will be missed but we are assured knowing that he is with his Father in heaven. ❤️
