“ Don, oh what fun we had with Charles, Paul and Joan when we were kids in Saltillo ....spending the night at each others' houses, playing card games and playing make-believe games. And, we all remember going to Ma Sue Sue and Daddy Pird's house when all the family would gather. No one had a better childhood than we did. Now, we are all growing older and you and Charles have gone on before Paul, Joan and me. I shall never forget you and your family and send my love and sympathy to all your siblings, children, grandchildren and the great-grandchildren. 'Till we meet again.
