“ Donna was a precious sister-in-love and friend who graciously welcomed me into the family 40 years ago when I married her brother, Rusty!

Her faith and love for family shone in all she did and with such spirit and endless energy!!! To this day I don't know how she accomplished so much. She truly lived her life to the fullest, and was beautiful both inside and out.

I will miss her in so many ways but know our loss is heaven's gain, and have the joy knowing I'll see her again!
Love you, Linda (Mayo) Womack
