“ I've only known Dorothy through helping her at the Bank but in that short time we've gotten to know each other well. We'd talk about family, vacations, and her collection of snowman. She was a very special lady and everyone who knew her will miss her. May God give you the strength you need at this time of your loss and the peace in the wonderful memories that you are left with.

“ I wanted to express my deepest sympathys for the family of Mrs. Churchman!! I had known her about 20 yrs. I worked down the mall from her when she managed CATO'S years ago and I worked for a while with her at the CITGO ONE STOP!! She was a very sweet person and a very hard worker and she will be dearly missed!! My condolences to her family!!

Sincerely,
