

Dorothy Edling

July 29, 1927 - October 17, 2011

Dorothy June Edling, 87, passed on to be with the Lord October 17, 2011. Our dear sweet mother was loved and cherished by those who knew her. Leaving our side with aching hearts, there will forever be an empty church choir chair, stadium seat, club position, and ever-supporting family member who cannot be replaced but will always be remembered. She had the heart of a servant who willingly and gladly helped everyone around her. As a dedicated member of the Westminster Presbyterian church, her heart and soul were faithfully committed to live for the Lord. After graduating from the University of Nebraska, the college sweethearts started the family which now spreads to all corners of the United States; starting with the oldest, Jack Allen Edling in 1950, followed by David William Edling, Barbara Gaye Edling Stockwell, Thomas Miller Edling, and Daniel Fredrick Edling. Along with successfully raising her five children, she also had a long, distinguished career as a school teacher and in service to her community. Following her retirement, she increased her commitment to volunteering and in service to the Lord. Her greatest passion was serving the Westminster Presbyterian Women Organization. Family being so dear to her heart was the driving force for every holiday gathering and get-together. Attending every one of her kids and grandkids school and sporting events was another one of her passions. She was preceded in death by her parents, Raymond Jack and Cora Bell Miller. Survivors include her husband of 62 years, Gaylord Edling; brother Fred Miller and wife Carlene from Lincoln, Nebraska; sister Marilyn Donovan and husband Bill from Rogers, Arkansas; son Jack from Fenton, Michigan; son Dave and wife Deborah from Mesquite, Texas; daughter Barbara from The Woodlands, Texas; son Tom and wife Heidi from San Diego, California; and son Dan and wife Suzann from Corsicana, Texas. Grandchildren include Jake Edling and wife Missy, Ben Edling, Nick Edling; Erin Edling Williams and husband Shane, Nathan Edling, Josh Edling; Kyle Stockwell, Emily Stockwell; Margaret Edling, John Edling, Andrew Edling; Jill Edling, Chris Edling. Great-grandchildren include Ethan, Isaac, and Kade Williams; Ahava, Jake Jr., and John Edling. Numerous nieces, nephews and cherished friends were also near and dear to her heart. Memorial service will be held Tuesday, October 18, 2011, at 3 p.m. at Westminster Presbyterian Church of Corsicana, reception following. In lieu of flowers, a memorial may be made to Presbyterian Women, Westminster Presbyterian Church. 312 N. 13th Street, Corsicana, Texas, 75110.

“ Love to all of you during this sad time. Your Mom was indeed a lovely woman - and part of that generation whose daily presence and actions speak volumes. I did not know she was from Nebraska! That also tells me about her strong, solid convictions. I feel fortunate to have seen her a year ago at the Tiger football game.

My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

*Much love,
Jen*

“ To: Dan and all the Edling family.

I was sad and kind of shocked to here of Mrs. Edlings passing. It is sad when we here on earth have to let go of someone so special but in Heaven people are rejoicing as that special person enters in. She was a wonderful person, some one who would always take the time to make you feel that you were important and wanted. I always enjoyed going to Dan's house because she seemed to always make things fun. Connie and I will keep the Edlings in our prayers. We are so sorry for "you guy's" loss, as I think I can remember here saying something that way.

“ Dan....I'm very sorry to hear about your mom. I'll pray for you and all of your family. October 19th was 2 years since I lost my mother and I think about her every day but what gets me thru those times are the great memories I have of her and of course I share those things with my kids all the time. Take care of your family, give them my sympathy and take care of yourself. Hopefully I'll see you again sometime. Again, I'm very sorry.

“ Our deepest sympathies to all the Edlings who were so devoted to Westminster Pres and to the Corsicana community! I remember Mrs. Edling as my very favorite Sunday school teacher, youth leader and dearest of friends to our family. One funny thing I remember was that she and Gaylord were our Sr. High advisers on a ski trip to Ruidoso where she did most of the cooking (aid by some inept high schoolers) and because the eggs were cooked in an iron skillet - they came out green - but we all devoured them and had a good laugh about it! She always had a sparkle in her eye and an air of peace and devotion about her that made you want to be a part of her family and her world. Her hugs were the very best and her interest in my life continued every visit that I made to Westminster to see my parents. I felt she was always watching over us from her choir seat - I think she has a better seat now to do that from. Thanks to you all for sharing your dear sweet Mom/wife with all of us!
