LOVE

Is Patient

Is Kind

Does Not Envy

Is Not Rude

Is Not Self-Seeking

Is Not Easily Angered

Keeps No Record of Wrongs

NEVER FAILS

All who knew her, know love. Dorothy Faye Beldin Gaines "Mimi" passed late Wednesday, July 22, 2015 at Baylor University Healthcare Hospital in Dallas after a stroke Monday morning. She enjoyed time with her family, traveling with her husband, shopping, and collecting antique lamps. Mimi had a joy de vivre like no other and compassion for everything God created. Anyone she came across was a friend. She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother, and her memories will continue to nurture. Her kind spirit was preceded in death by her son James Travis Gaines "Jim", her parents, sister Velma and Vera, brothers Henry and Travis. Her love for others shines through those that survive her including her husband James Gaines, her son Steve and wife Robin Gaines, granddaughters Molly Gaines and Sarah Gaines, her sister Leona Giles, numerous nieces and nephews and North Beaton Church of Christ family.

"And now abides faith, hope, love these three; but the greatest of these is love." 1 Cor 13:13
