

Dorothy Hardgrave

October 5, 1918 - January 29, 2015

Dorothy O. Hardgrave, 96, a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away Thursday, January 29th. Service will be 2:00 pm, Saturday at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. Visitation will be 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm, Saturday, Jan. 31st prior to funeral. Internment will follow at Resthaven Memorial Park.

Dorothy was born on October 5, 1918 in Covington, Texas. She was an active member of First Baptist Church, where she was very involved in her Sunday School and the Solid Rockers ministry. She served as a Pink Lady at Corsicana Hospital after retiring from a distinguished career at Navarro College, serving as the bookstore manager for 23 years along with service to the Baptist Student Union. A truly loving person, kind and generous, and most of all...a servant of God.

She is preceded in death by her parents and loving brothers and sisters. She is survived by her daughter, Patricia and her husband Johnny Coker of Fort Worth; grandchildren Stan Coker and his wife Tammy of Fort Worth, Alaina Lindsey of Houston; six great grandchildren, one great-great grandson and a host of loving family and friends.

“ Dorothy truly had a servants heart she helped with Senior Game Nights and outings. I recall going to the church office and she would be helping the ladies in the office.

I am so sorry that I will be unable to join the celebration due to having the flu but I will certainly be there in spirit.
