

Dorothy Hulsey

December 21, 1929 - August 15, 2024

Dorothy Hulsey, age 94, of Frisco, Texas, passed away at her residence on August 15, 2024. Born on December 21, 1929, in Whitney, Texas, Dorothy was the cherished daughter of Joe Holley and Eunice Golden.

Dorothy lived a life filled with love, creativity, and faith. She had a remarkable talent for sewing, creating beautiful pieces that were treasured by those who received them. Her culinary skills were equally admired, especially her famous chocolate cake, a treat that will be remembered by all who had the pleasure of tasting it.

A devout woman, Dorothy loved her church and found great peace in her faith. She also enjoyed the simple pleasure of writing letters to friends, maintaining cherished connections through her thoughtful words. Her passion for gardening brought her closer to nature, and her garden was a testament to her nurturing soul.

Dorothy is survived by her loving daughter, Penny Moya, and her husband, Charles; her adored grandchildren, Emory Moya and Averil Moya. She was preceded in death by her parents, Joe and Eunice Holley; her husband, Hulen Hulsey; and her brother, Robert Holley.

A private graveside service to honor Dorothy's life will be held on Tuesday,

August 20, 2024, at Resthaven Memorial Park at 11:00 AM.
