“ Doug will be remembered by me as the real "Urban Cowboy". In the late 70's he was in my opinion the real life cowboy and he and Toni were the coolest couple and my dear friends. Some of my best memories of those early married years is sitting in our tiny little homes as newlyweds and playing cards or dominos with Doug and Toni. We that knew Doug were blessed. Since I hadn't seen Doug in 30 years he will always be the handsome young cowboy. I wish I could have seen you one more time. My God be with you all that loved and knew him.
