“ Marshall was an online friend for several years. Our mutual passion for music is what kindled our friendship. He was a compassionate friend, ready to lend an ear whenever one was needed and more than willing to offer the proverbial reality check. I've missed him since the loss of his online access and wish him peace. My heart goes out to his family. God bless.

“ Marshall was my close friend for the past ten years. He felt more like my family than just a friend. He brought me into his own family and they too have made me always feel welcomed through many emails over the years. I will miss Marshall so very much. I always counted on his words of wisdom and love. He has helped not only me but my husband and my two daughters from gathering information that we needed as well as his own vast knowledge. I can't tell you the many times that we have counted on Marshall for his words of help. I am thankful that my husband and I got to visit him a couple of times before he moved from McKinney. Marshall and I talked on the phone a lot since his move and I know it gave him peace of mind and touched his heart to be close to his brother Mike and wife. He was so excited to tell me what Mike would bring him for lunch or where they went together or what they talked about. This gave him great pride and a purpose in his last months after so many painful years.

My thoughts and prayers are with Marshall's daughter Marion and all his family. He was a GREAT Man and I will miss him so much. I loved him deeply.
