“ JoyNell, Mark, Bruce...

Please accept my deepest sympathy. I am saddened to hear of Dwayne's passing. Dwayne was the best "uncle-in-law".

I was doing some online research on GrannyB when I saw the obituary this morning.

May God bless and keep each of you...and provide the strength to deal with the tough days ahead.

My heart reaches out to each of you as I know the pain of losing someone so dear. Today would've been my Mom's 78th birthday....

*With love,
Susan*

My fond memories include him being a great conversationalist and fun person to be around. He always, without fail, made me laugh and smile while in his presence.

“ My dearest beloved Joy, Bruce and little Mark: How I loved your precious husband and father when I was growing up at Memorial Baptist Church in Corsicana. I especially liked going to the Baylor Football games with him and other church members. What fun he was. (And he always gave me some spending money at the game for snacks, that my momma could not afford to give me). Last year when I called and left a message for Dwayne...I was going to tell him what happened to me one day at my job here in Austin...a man walked into my office with the last name of Southall. The only person I ever knew by that name was the Baylor Quarterback in the 1960's Terry Southall. So I asked the man if he could possibly be him! As fate would have it, the man standing before me "was" Terry Southall the former Baylor Quarterback. So, I started to tell him all about how I had a "crush" on him as a little girl...and always went to the Baylor football games with "other church members" just to watch him play in person. I remember even telling Terry that when I went home to visit the next time...I would be calling the church deacon "Dwayne Wayne Bryson" who always drove us to the football games...and tell him about meeting him. Terry was so proud that he had made an impression on me, and for me to be sure and tell Mr. Bryson "hello-from-Terry-Southall, and that "yes" he "really" had come into my office." When I came home to visit I called Joy and Dwayne's house, but got the answering machine. So I just let things go...always planning to come back home to visit and call Dwayne to tell him about Terry. I hope this story makes you all feel better about Dwayne going on to Heaven. He was such a good and kind person who always saw the bright side of life. As I loved him (and the three of you in life) I now remember him (and all three of you) as we walk together lovingly in his death. Don't you know that our loving God is so glad to have Dwayne back home with Him. I will always be glad for Dwayne showing me the way back home to our Heavenly Father where I will see Them both again some day. May the presence of God (and our beloved Dwayne) be with you all during this trying time. Saying prayers for you in my heart, Linda

“ Ms Bryson, Bruce, Mark, and Families,
Am saddened to hear about Mr. Bryson.
I meet him when he use to bring his little white poodle when I worked at the Veterinary Clinic. He was one of the sweetest men I have ever met. It was a pleasure to get to know him. As long as I have known your family, I didn't put it together the connection of the phone company/pioneer club and his friendship with my Aunt Janice Palmeri. Just want you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,

Debbie Morris Robinson
