“ *I'll always appreciate Marcy's sweet smile and friendly, loving attitude.
She was always ready to help anyone in need and to be a friend. I hate that I didn't get to say goodbye but my prayers are certainly with each of you she leaves behind. I will miss her across the table in Sunday School with her timely, realistic input.
God holds her in His arms and she rests from her journey and struggles The love of God and His peace comfort you and surround you with His love at the difficult time. Please call if you need anything at all or I can help in any way*

“ I remmber Marcy when she lived in Gainesville, She was such a cut-up we always had lots of fun and good hard belly laughs. Marcy was always willing to help someone out if needed. She was avery hard worker and always wanted to have things done right,ha! She would always tell me now Rhonda lets do this right the frist time round so we want have to do it all over...I am really going to miss her around,but I reckon Jesus needed her up in heaven to get some things done, So Marcy you may be gone but NEVER FORGOTTEN.. I love you all very much,May you all look to Jesus and he will see you through this time of sorrow for you all, Rhonda Branch

“ To the family of Dyce Branch :
My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this sad time. Dyce was a very sweet and caring library visitor and she will be missed. We enjoyed seeing her and her son as they enjoyed reading and talking with us.

“ I will miss the sweet, sweet lady who came so regularly to the library. Our loss must be Heaven's gain but she was lost too soon. My deepest sympathy to her young son and family and friends who knew her well.

“ Dyce was a very special person. We enjoyed her being in our class. She was a very hard worker and a fantastic writer. She was so proud when she received her gold card and became a member of the Navarro College Adult Education Honor Society this past June 2008.

"He heals the broken hearted and binds up their wounds". Psalms 147:3.

May you have hope in your heart to light your way, and the Lord's brightest blessings to comfort you each day. With Prayers and Sympathy
