“ Prayers and thoughts for the family during the time of your family's loss. Edgar has given so much to others and will be missed by many.

He and Mrs. Ernie are catching up on their stories. He fought a good fight.

Isaiah 60:19-20

"The sun will no longer supply light for you by day, nor will the moon's brightness shine on you; the Lord will be your permanent source of light—the splendor of your God will shine upon you. Your sun will no longer set; your moon will not disappear; the Lord will be your permanent source of light; your time of sorrow will be over. " May your sorrow see the end of path knowing that Christ is their source of light "now."

“ It is with great sadness that we say goodbye to our dear friend Eddie Montgomery. He was a very good man, a funny man and we loved him. The years we all worked together were great, even the very poor years. We know Eddie earned his place in Heaven, because he was such a fair and honest man also. Our prayers are with the Montgomery family. Harold & Vicky Prater

“ Prayers for Lynette, Scott, and Lee in the loss of their dad. I have many memories of Edgar as a cousin that lived "way out in the country" in Emhouse. Fun summer days, riding old Dolly, popping firecrackers, going to Bible school, and sleeping outside under the stars. I know it was only a few short days at a time but those memories are some of the best times. You are truly blessed to have had Edgar as a father. I know from the way all of you have matured into the people you are that Edgar was a wonderful role model. He can now be united again with your mom, his mom and dad in the restful peace of Heaven.
