“ I will treasure my memories of days I was given to care for C. W. I marveled at how strong Edna Earl was. She would get him up on the lift and push him in the living room and sit him in his chair. She would turn on his old westerns for him. After he had been up, at least 2 hours, she would load him back on the lift and push him back to the bedroom. Edna Earl was a pretty petite lady - but, when it came to taking care of C.W., she had energy and strength like you would not believe. I always felt at home there. Boss tried to run me off, but I was stubborn and Edna Earl was determined that I was going to care for C.W.

I was lucky, he never got a full bite on me.

Edna Earl was a fine Christian lady. I always loved seeing her smiling face. She will be missed. However, I know she is at home with the Lord. Her and C.W., my dad Marcus, Uncle Jimmy, and grandpa Cecil and grandma Ida Humbert and Uncle Bubba are gathered together waiting on the rest of us to join them. So many more loved ones waiting as well. Thank you for the memories!

Love always, Donna Whittenburg
