“ My Aunt Elizabeth was a remarkable woman. She had nine children, that in itself made her remarkable. She loved deeper than anyone I know. Her children and Uncle Billy were her life. She had a very special relationship with her grandchildren. Family was first, she was always there for her family. I will miss you Aunt Tip.

“ My mother was the best mother. I miss her so tremendously terribly bad. She was my best friend my confidant. She taught me how to be the strong minded string willed hard working non quitting woman that I am. I hope and pray that my kids love me as deeply as I do her. She is the best... Thank you momma for being the best mom that any person could ever ask for. I miss you and love you so deeply. Till we meet again. You will be forever in my heart and always on my mind. Save me a place in the kingdom above. .

My Aunt Elizabeth was a fine woman. She knew the true meaning of loving unconditionally. She was a big part of my young life. I heard a sermon earlier today that spoke of after passing that a person's spirit goes immediately to heaven and they reconnect with their loved ones that passed before them. What a glorious reunion that must have been!! I loved her tremendously, she was a loving kind spirit and will truly be missed.

I could never say enough to commemorate my granny appropriately. She truly is one of the greats. She devoted most of her 72 years of life to her family. I think about the traits I have inherited from her, such as being a near midget with small feet and hands, to the restless leg syndrome that I can't seem to control during the good parts of a book or movie, but there is also love for my family. I wasn't around much as an adult because that's what happens. You grow up and you start living your life, as you should, but you lose sight of other things in the process. Even though I wasn't around, granny is always a voice in my head as I raise Trinity and Bailey, and I know they are all the better for it. Granny, thank you for instilling in me the same values you used in raising me to be who I am in caring for Rori and my girls. I love you for everything you were to me, and for everything for which you stood. You will always be sorely missed. See you later.

*My Granny, I love so much.
She was so strong,
With a gentle touch.
It wont be long Before were all taken home.
With you arriving before me I know heaven will be a sight to see.
I knew you all my life, I'm excited to join you one day in the kingdom.
Thankfully were bonded together by more than blood i was so excited to to hear you excepted Jesus into your heart I had to wipe away my tears. Because fear of never being near you again vanished once I heard you made it to the promised land. I love you, and I thank you for all the memories, love, and strength you shared.*
