“ So sorry, Oscar, for your great loss. She was such a dear person. I have great memories of her making all our Purdon School reunions so special. May the Lord hold you in his hands as you travel through life without her at your side.

“ Sorry to read that your dear wife Elizabeth has fallen asleep in death. May the many years that you shared be Cherish. May you receive the strength and power beyond what is normal to endure your great loss. There is comfort and hope in reading what Jesus himself said: ?I am the resurrection and the life.? (John 11:25) While grief at the loss of a loved one is great, joy at receiving back a loved one in the resurrection will be greater.

“ Oscar, I am so sad to hear of Elizabeth's passing. She was a beautiful lady, inside and out, and I will always remember her with affection. You and your family are in my thoughts and my prayers during this difficult time. She is a shining new star in the nighttime sky and will always be there watching out for those she loves...waiting with open arms to welcome you home when your time comes. YOU will see her again...in a place that we on earth can only dream about.
