“Jeanie, was my best friend at Church she was just like a sister. We have been close since a year ago when we went to the Lady's retreat at Heavenly acres and I loved her just like a sister. Yesterday at lunch I was looking at some pillow's on Terry's village and this pillow came up and it said (I just thought of someone who makes me smile... You.) And I got back to my desk and called Lucy and she told me about Sis and I can't stand she was a sweet lady and I loved her very much and the couple of weeks ago Church was already started and she came in late and she walked over to me and gave me a hugged and said I love you and you looked like you needed a hug and I will never forget her.
