“ Benedict Family - I am so sad for the loss of your wife and mother.
Sue had the most beautiful smile I have ever seen and a laugh that was contagious. Wendell and I saw her last month at our Grandmother's funeral and she hugged us tight and told us how much she loved us. She beamed with happiness when she caught us up on what was going on with you all including her precious grandchildren.

My prayer is that God gives you strength to face the days ahead and comfort in knowing that she is with her Lord and Savior.

“ Randy, Kevin & Todd,
Mom and I just visited with your parents while dining at Ponte's a couple of weeks ago. Your mother told us all about her upcoming trip to Colorado and that she was looking forward to seeing her grandchildren. When we left I told mom how sweet your mother had always been and that she never changed as long as I had known her. Always remember, that she is smiling down on you and that she is so proud of you. Peace be with you during this difficult time.

“ Benny, Randy, Kevin, and Todd I am so so sorry for the loss of such a dear and special person to all of us. She was definately one of a kind. So many times throughout the past many years I have caught myself thinking of all the little things she did that her and I would laugh at while I did her nails. The way she wrote her name so perfectly, every letter in a straight line. Her money was always so smooth and if it wasnt smooth enough we would sit there and laugh until she got it just right. Those are only a few of my favorite things, list could go on and on, about her. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you and the grandkids. I know that her and Mammaw (Mary Newman) are sitting up there watching over all of us and talking about their grand and great-grand kids. She will greatly be missed. Love you all!!!!
