

Emma Ingham

March 25, 1935 - March 9, 2012

Emma Lu Ingham, resident of Dallas and more recently Corsicana, passed away on Friday March 9, 2012 in Corsicana with her family at her side at the age of 76. She was born in Corsicana on March 25, 1935 to Richard Earl Ingham Sr. and Mary Elizabeth Green Ingham. She was a retired bookkeeper retiring twice, once in 2008 and again in 2011. She has worked for the Corsicana ISD, Bonanza Steak House Corporation, Treasurer for Jimmy Dean, and BSN / Sports Supply Group. Emma was a member of the Gaston Oaks Baptist Church in Dallas where she served in many areas of work and was a long time choir member. She was preceded by her parents Richard Earl Ingham Sr. and Mary Elizabeth Green Ingham. Survivors include her brother Jon Ingham and wife Donna of Corsicana and sister-in-law June Ingham of Corsicana. Niece Aimee Kasprzyk and husband David of Corsicana, nephews Jon Ingham and wife Candice of Corsicana and Sam Ingham of Austin. Great nieces Sarah and Anna Kasprzyk and great nephews Carter Wells and Isaac Ingham, and a number of cousins and extended family members. Visitation will be held on Monday evening from 6 - 8pm at Griffin - Roughton Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, March 13, 2012 at 1pm in the Chapel at Griffin - Roughton Funeral Home with Dr. Gary W. Cook of Gaston Oaks Baptist Church officiating. Pallbearers will be her nephews and cousins. Burial will follow the service at Hamilton - Beeman Cemetery. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to the Gaston Oaks Baptist Church 8515 Greenville Avenue Suite S205 Dallas, Texas 75243.

“ We only knew Emma for about 6 months, but we learned to love her. I brought her a rib-eye steak one Sunday. We prayed for her and that God's will be done. So glad He took her and she didn't have to linger. I know she had a full life.

“ Yes my mother was auticrlate, clever, lovely and fun! I wish I had given her more of the laud and praise she deserved. Shopping does wonders for bringing one out of a dismal countenance. The sun comes out, even if for a limited duration.
