

Emma Walker

September 7, 1910 - November 4, 2005

Emma Lee Walker, 95, of Corsicana passed away Friday, Nov. 4, 2005, at her residence. Memorial services will be 3 p.m. Sunday at Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, Corsicana. Mrs. Walker was born Sept. 7, 1910, in Biloxi, Miss., to Robert Lee McBride and Emma Belle Tinsley McBride. She was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Zertler Walker; sister, Ruby McBride Liller; and grandson, Nathanael S. Crawford. Survivors include her four daughters and sons-in-law, Deborah Lee Walker of Whitney, Roberta and Horace Brewer of Corsicana, Eunice and Michael Crawford of Gresham, Ore., and Mary and Verne Day of Corsicana; son and daughter-in-law, Robert Edward and Debra Walker of Carthage; 23 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren and one honorary granddaughter. Arrangements by Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ Emma Walker

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ Sister Walker was a very faithful sister who I appreciated for the fact that it seemed that all of her conversations were based on something that she had read or experienced in service. I enjoyed this a great deal and now that we are older and in a congregation where we are considered the "older folks" in the truth....we appreciate her zeal and example that much more. Our thoughts are with the entire family.

Donie Villatoro - November 04, 2005 at 12:00 AM