“ I worked in the personnel office with Net at Walmart. Net was a very nice man with a lot of neat stories to tell. I liked to hear him laugh. He loved to talk to people and hear what they had to say. I wish that I had been able to work with him longer because I am sure I would have learned some things from him. Although I have only met Venetia and Jeff, I feel as though I know most of his family because he always talked about them all. He was very proud of his children. God bless you and keep you. Net will always be in our hearts.

“ There will come a day when the tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...and your heart will begin healing itself...and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...as a sun shower of the soul...a turning of the tide...a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will...risk loving...go on believing...and treasure the tears of remembrance. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead.”-Isa. 26:19.

“ *To the Scott Family,
My heart prayer go out to you and your family members with the loss of Net. God is a mighty presence in the time of our loss and He knows every tear, loney moment and every grief we have. Lean on Him and He will never leave you. My most helpful scripture for a time such as this is Ps 23:4 "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." The key words "walk through" this is just a passing in this lifes journey and the Lord will be our comfort and guide during this time.*

Love and prayer for you and your family.

“ Mrs. Scott, Please accept our condolences in the tragic loss of Net. I worked with him the past four years and always found him as a Christian and loyal associate who will be greatly missed by his family and friends. When you want to talk with your husband, you only need to look into your heart; there you will find him.
