“ Our thoughts and prayers will be with you through this rough time. We understand fully what your going through because it will be a year on Sunday that we lost Pop but they're both in a better place and Erselle is probably filling pop in on whats been going on the last year. It's going to be strange not seeing him out in the neighborhood anymore he will be greatly missed. We love you and will always be there for you if you need us and one day we'll all be reunited again!
