

Ethel Peck Capps

October 10, 1927 - December 27, 2008

Ethel Louise Peck Capps, 81, of Corsicana, passed away on Saturday, December 27, 2008 at Trinity Mother Francis Hospital in Tyler after a sudden illness. She was born on October October 10, 1927 in Baxter Springs, Kansas. She held a Master's Degree in Science and was a teacher both in spirit and profession. Ethel was an avid bridge player, playing every Monday at Kinsole House, with the 4 B's, as a guest at the Country Club and occasionally as a substitute for other groups around town. Many copies of her best novel, "Picking up the Pieces", which was published by "autherHouse", are still available. Copies of the other stories that she wrote can be checked out at the public library. She was a former member of the Writers Club and the Pan American Club. She is survived by four sons: Terry Capps of Corsicana, Jim Capps of Austin, Roy Capps of Fairfield, and Don Capps of Plano. 10 grandchildren and 15 greatgrandchildren. It was her wish to be cremated and for a private memorial service to be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the Paralyzed Veterans of America.

Tribute Wall

“ Ethel Peck Capps

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ Nathan, so sorry about your loss. I know that you will miss your grandmother very much. I only met her briefly at yours and Tammy's wedding. She was a very pretty lady and very nice. Take care.

Debbie Lake - December 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ o love you so much and am going to miss you even more you have done so much and were a life saver so many times i miss you

Charity Capps - December 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ It was an honor to know this very intelligent lady! She will be missed dearly.

Tammy Capps - December 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Terry, Roy, Nathan, Charity & Stephanie, I am so sorry for your loss. Ethel was a special woman. Even though I haven't seen her recently, I always enjoyed our talks about her youth and her trip to China. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Xina Matthews - December 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM

PS

“ Ethel Peck Capps

Patricia (Berry) Stone - December 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM

PS

“ Ethel was a lovely lady with whom I enjoyed many bridge games. She was always friendly and forthright which I appreciated. She will be miss by those who knew and loved her. My sincere condolences for the loss of your mother and family member.

Patricia (Berry) Stone - December 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ My aunt was always very kind to me;and I will miss her, even though I Hadn't seen her in many years. She was a good influence to all who knew her.

Deanna Peck Springate - December 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM