“ I met Ms Fannie shortly after I moved to Frost in the early 80's. . She would come into the Cafe often and we always had a chat. She was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever met. Always had a hug and a smile. The last time I saw her,I had walked into Walmart and she was sitting on the bench outside McDonald's . She recognized me,about the time I recognized her ,so I sat and chatted with her for a few minutes .this was several years ago, not sure what year. She asked me about Doug Fortenberry ,and what he was up to. I filled her in up to that point. We talked about 15 minutes or so,but I had to get my shopping done. I gave her a big hug, andwished her well . Heaven has received a most awesome and loved lady .
