

Florence Fullwood

August 21, 1927 - February 3, 2020

Florence “Flo” Fullwood quietly left this earth, to be in her heavenly home, on Monday, February 3, 2020. She was surrounded by family members. Flo is the daughter of Cassimur and Josephina Zaleski, who were Polish immigrants. She was born in Illinois, and there she lived until she met P.D. and moved to Texas. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband P.D., sister Genevieve, and brothers Edmond and William. Still living are her sisters Julia and Regina from Chicago, Illinois and brother Mitchell from Arizona. We know she is enjoying a joyful reunion with all family and friends that have gone before her. Flo is best known as a helpmate to her husband P.D. You did not usually see one of them; that the other one was not far away. Friends always referred to them as P.D and Flo. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother to Kimberly Garrett Supak, Todd Garrett, Jordan Ewing, Shelley Ewing Hughes, P.D. Fullwood III, and Ryan Fullwood. Great grandchildren are Alexa Supak Seilheimer, Jenna Supak, Skyler Supak, Raylee Garrett, Lane Supak, Madysen Ewing, Will Hughes and Lily Hughes. Grandchildren and great grandchildren love their “Mimi”. The beauty of having a wonderful mother and grandmother are the wonderful memories the entire family will carry with them in their hearts. She will be missed by many but certainly not forgotten.

The family wants to thank the Twilight Home and staff for the wonderful care they gave her while being a resident there and Virginia’s Hospice caregivers for their love and attention to Flo’s every need. Visitation will be from 1 to 3 at Griffin Roughton Funeral Home, with a service to follow in the chapel Sunday, February 9. Pastor Holly Neeley of Freedom Life Chapel will officiate at the service. Pallbearers will be Randall Garrett, Brad Ewing, Todd Garrett, Jordan Ewing, P.D. Fullwood III, Ryan Fullwood, Scott Supak and Lane Supak. Burial will be at Oakwood Cemetery.

“ My sweet Mimi and I shared so many wonderful memories. She taught me to bake, clean, and taught me the ways to a mans heart... even though I was only about 8 at the time.. I learned early! Of all the memories me and Mimi shared, I do believe my favorite was in her last few days being able to simply just put lotion on her dry face and hands since she was no longer able to. It made her perk up and she was so happy. Being told every time I was with her how much she loved me and I would tell her how much I loved her. I always told Mimi that when she passes, I want her eyes. Mimi had the most beautiful crystal blue eyes. Little moments like those I will cherish forever. I know pop is the happiest person in the world right now having you in his arms in heaven. I know when you walked through that gate, that Jesus and pop were standing right there waiting on you and loving on you! Until we meet again my sweet Mimi, you will forever have a spot in my heart and not a day will go by that I won't remember all of the lessons you taught me.❤️

I will forever cherish all of the memories that I shared with my mimi. My favorite memory would probably be wearing all of mimis night gowns and putting on her “fancy gloves” and making her sit down and watch my fashion show and tell me what her favorite outfit was ❤️ I will miss coming home from school everyday to mimi making me a root beer float. We made so many braums runs to get a scoop of icecream or an afternoon snack. You never would come into mimis house and miss out on any icecream ! I will forever love you mimi and I know you're up in heaven dancing with pop! Although times will be sad without you hear, I am super blessed to have you and pop as my guardian angels💕
