“ I have so many things I could say about my grandma. She was the one person I knew that would put me in my place but at the same time give me the love and streanth I so much needed. I will always remember her stories she would tell about her when she was a child and as a young adult. I dont think this will ever feel real ,loosing the only real strong woman I have ever known. We know your happy grandma your with papaw but we miss you so much down here. WE LOVE YOU!!!!!!love

“ I remember times shared with my Grandmother. Some very wild, like being chased with a fly swatter or being made to pick a switch off a tree. Most of all the hugs and the advice. I would give anything to relive them. She cared about me. My Grandma and my Grandpa ment the world to me. But, I know that their with Jesus. I will realy miss her.

“ As the Matriarch of our family, there are not enough words to adequately describe our loss. Mamaw made an impression and touched the lives of her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. We have truly been blessed to have had the opportunity to share her with so many generations of family and friends. Heaven is surely celebrating her homecoming and reunion with Papaw, Mama, Mandy, her parents and a host of other family and friends. "Happy Mother's Day, Mamaw!"
I love you very much,
Kim, (Your Granddaughter/Daughter)

“ Kim and Family:

No words can convey the sorrow in my heart for you and your family at this time. Your grandmother and mother are now together once again, whole and without pain. You now have two strong guardian angels to watch over you and those you love. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. If there is anything we can do please let me know. You were a great source of strength for not only me but for our family during the difficult times we faced in 2006.

May God give you strength, comfort and peace in your heart in the days and months ahead.

All our love,

Pam, Weldon and Hanah
