“ Three years but it seems like a lifetime. Took a while to get past you leaving me on my birthday but I feel now it is the best blessing I could have asked for. You brought me into this world and I was there when you left. Love and miss you Mom. We are doing the best we can here without you and Daddy. ”

“ Aunt Frances was a strong woman with a warm and caring heart. My memories of her go way back to when I was a kid watching amazed how she worked in the kitchen. Two of the proudest days of my life were when she shared her 'grooms' chocolate cake recipe with me and the day she wanted my recipe for 'sunshine' cake. Aunt Frances, you spent a lifetime living a life of faith and service to God, may your time be rewarded as you reunite with Uncle Jerry, David, and all those who have gone before you.
