“ I remember very clean floors, the kind you don't get your bare feet dirty on, and cookies and kool-aid. We did not visit a lot as kids, but that is what I remember.

I remember hugs at Navarro College and extra trips to the bookstore for them whether I needed a book or not.

I will always cherish the crochet patterns. I did not know I could follow a pattern, but I have made two butterfly afghans.

*Love you, Jo and Kevin,
Mindy*

“ Madelyn was a very special lady in my life. She was always happy to take time to spend with a little kid who was usually in the way. Over the last 25 years, Madelyn has always kept up with what was going on in my life. She was a special blessing in my life and she will be missed.
