

Frances Pfeiffer

July 20, 1935 - February 15, 2013

Frances (Ginger) Virginia (Barker) Pfeiffer, age 77, of Streetman, passed away on Friday February 15, 2013 at her residence with her family at her bedside. Funeral services are scheduled for Saturday, February 23, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. at New Hope Baptist Church in Winkler. Burial will follow at St. Elmo Cemetery. The family will receive visitors from 6 – 8p.m. on Friday at Griffin – Roughton Funeral Home in Fairfield.

Ginger was born on July 20, 1935 in Winkler. She attended Fairfield High School and then she moved to the Dallas area where she worked for the Dallas Times Herald. Ginger then moved to the Waco area where she spent many years in copier sales. In 1986 she started her own business in Waco named Copy World and it was a designated Sharp Dealership. She then retired in 1994 after 42 years of working. She moved back to her hometown in 2010 where she lived until her death. Ginger loved life and lived everyday to the fullest even during her illness with a spirit of determination and grace. Even during her last days she remained faithful to our Lord Jesus Christ. During her lifetime, Ginger helped many family and friends during their times of illness and need. She truly was an angel on earth. She enjoyed cooking, shows, politics, sports, gardening, hunting and fishing. She was an amazing chef. She loved gospel and country music and her favorite flowers were pink roses and pansies, as they reminded her of her mother.

Ginger was preceded in death by Dennis Hays, Rudy Pfeiffer, a son Christopher Mack Hays, parents Jake and Pansy Barker, brother Billy Mack Barker, sister Ruth Faye Nettle, and grandson Chad Westover. She is survived by two daughters Terissa Westover and husband George of Streetman, and Kimberly Johnson and her husband Al of Streetman., and a son Kevin Hays and wife Kim of Eules. Twelve grandchildren Christy Crocker and husband Danny, Brian Shelburne and wife Beth, Kelli Minze, David Shelburne and wife Shana, Jennifer Henderson and husband Eric, Amy Johnson, Ashley Johnson, Christopher Hays, Chad Hays and wife Heidi, Haley Hays and Hunter Hays. Eleven very special great grandchildren and many nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews. Ginger was a loving mother, Nana, aunt and great friend to all who knew her. She will be deeply missed by all.
