FRANK MARTIN JR.

“Jumper you Jughead!”

Frank Martin Jr., 79 of Dew passed away Monday October 19, 2020 after a brief hospitalization in Waco.

Frank was born to Frank Martin and Evie Martin on March 12, 1941.

He was joined at the Gates by both parents, 4 brothers, 2 sisters and special grand daughter, Amy Dean.

Left to cherish his memory are his beloved wife, Priscilla; their two children, Randy Martin and wife Gina, and Gayle Dean of Fairfield; 2 sisters, Josie Price and Opal Barnette; granddaughters Kasi Huck and husband John of Browns Mills, New Jersey; and Kortni Waller and husband Cody of Fairfield; Great grandchildren Zadié Bain, Cameron Bain, Brayden Bain, Kinzi Waller, Kaili Huck, and Rowdy Waller.

Known by those who loved him most as “Pawpaw”, Frank was a caring, family oriented man. He always went above and beyond to take care of those he loved. To know Frank, was to love him. He always had a smile and a silly joke to tell. He loved his wife Peggy like no other, and they enjoyed their time spent at the Fairfield Senior Center amongst good friends.

Although Pawpaw’s time on this earth was cut short, he lived and loved every moment. His memory will live on through his family, and friends who adored him.

We love you Pops! We know now that when we look up at the dark night sky, you are the brightest star shining down! ❤️
