“ May memories of your loved one always bring a smile to your face. It is also my wish that this thought from the Bible at Isaiah 25:8 as well as Revelation 21:3-5 bring you comfort and hope for the future. My caring thoughts and sympathy to your family.

“ Frank will be ill no more. I just bet he went through the gates singing tenor to the top of his lungs. I imagine mother ran to the front of the line to welcome him. Ya'll were the very first group Mom and Dad ever had, and you helped start it all. I'm praying that the Lord of Host grant you peace and comfort knowing that "We'll shake hands in that land, where all things are new." We love you guys.

“ Marsha,

May your strong faith in God get you through this tough time. You are one of the most kind hearted people I have ever met...devoted wife, loving mother and just a great person. I know Frank had a strong faith and knew and felt daily how much he was loved and now his pain is over. I love you Marsha.

Love always,

Jerri

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Marsha,

*I did not know your husband, but I do know you. I would listen to you talk about Frank at work. You are a good christian person. I know you loved him very much by how well you cared for him. I remember when you both went on vacation last year it sounded like you both had a good time. Marsha, Frank is in Heaven now with Aaron and both are enjoying what the Bible talks about so much. Take care and see you at work.

“ Dear Marsha Kim Bo and Family~

I want you all to know we have held you so very close in our hearts with great prayer during this time of your life. I look back over the years and Frank Murphey and your family are what I call "MY ROOTS" There are a couple of stories I would like to share. First of all I can remember Marsha and Rita and Frank and Jerry dressing me up every Sunday morning to ride the bus and go pick kids up and bring them into the house of the Lord. I personally witnessed Frank helping so many kids to ensure they arrived to the HOUSE OF THE LORD for Childrens Church(I WAS ONE OF THEM) Frank loved kids he loved his own but he even loved kids that were not his. I remember Frank and Kim and Marsha and others singing the "PERODICAL SON" but I remember Franks solo in this song the most. I also remember my mother being so very sick one time and the elders of the church went and prayed for her Frank being one of the men and her fever breaking immediately. I have very fond memories of Frank. He was a GODLY man and a man that would do anything for anyone. The past few months Frank has still been coming to church even on days I am sure he did not feel like it. I am so glad I would stop and talk with him and Marsha. I would walk away feeling Franks smile and the love he shared for his wife and their children and grand children. May God bless you all during this time.
