“ We always looked up to you because you were our big brother. There was always so much love, fun times and memories that will never be forgotten. You could always talk us into doing some of the most crazy things that we will think back on and laugh and cherish. You will always live in our hearts big brother. Lovingly your little sister.

“ This saddens my heart. When I was a little girl, I would go visit my granny Lois Anderson and grandfather Keely. They lived next door. I would knock on Frank's door in the middle of the hot summer day. Mrs Swan would bring out 2 ice pops. Frank would sit on the porch with me and enjoy a ice cream. This is a special childhood memory of mine, I am most great full to be able to share. Thank you for being such wonderful neighbors. May you both rest in heavenly peace.
