“ Deepest Sympathy for your loss, although I do not remember her, since I was an infant the only 2 times I saw her, I have heard many family stories over the years, I will never forget the letter I received from her along with a candy dish that was a family heirloom for my wedding present. It was a very touching letter, which I have kept and will always treasure along with the candy dish. She was a remarkable lady. Again, my deepest heartfelt sympathy
