Uncle Breaco was something of a mystery to me, I didn't get to really know him, but I knew he love me. I Loved my Aunt Frankie who touched my life with her good humor, her understanding heart and her love that had no bounderies. She made an impact on the lives of my children with her smiles and laughter and great games of Skipbo!! I/we will miss her. I hold this time with all of you as precious and blessed. “ Dear Brenda,
You are a blessing to me, and from all I've heard and seen, I can thank your Mom for who you are. Proverbs 20:7 puts it this way, "A righteous man who walks in his integrity -- how blessed are his sons after him." I thank the Lord for the godly heritage your Mom has given you.
Love you...

I Corinthians 15:53-55 - "For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality. But when this perishable will have put on the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, 'Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?'"

“ 06/14/2006 Today we lay to rest the most loving, caring, sweet & all around happy lady in the history of man kind. To my family, we would like to thank all of you for allowing us to have her in our home. Nanny has always no matter what the situation been proud of her girls. We know today that today in heaven she & Popa are together, both happy & proud. During the trying times ahead we know if we pray & allow God to intervene in our trials & Nanny's hand of love to push us through we all will make good choices. Everyone who knew & loved Nanny from her extended family @ Navarro Mills Baptist Church to her youngest great grand baby are deeply thanked for helping to make her life so full of joy. So today the temple of Frankie Lee Hollis will be laid to rest, while her spirt will "sing in Jesuses chior" . thank you nanny for being an example for us all & We will miss you. kiss Popa for us.

“ Judy, Brenda and Shirley -

We were so sorry to learn of your mother's passing. We just learned she was ill and it just happened so fast. In a way this is a blessing that she did not have to suffer. We know you will miss her terribly. Please know you will all be in our prayers, and that of our church. We are praying for God's comfort, His peace and strength to get you through these days. His grace is sufficient to meet all of your needs, so just lean on Him and rest in His arms. (I am glad that God brought you my way at this time)
In His love,
Mary

“ *Frankie was always sweet to me.
I always looked forward visiting her as she did my taxes. A few times I was invited to go to her family get togethers in Desoto. Where her family treated me like family. I have enjoyed having her as friend and family member. Her memory will always be near to me.*

“ Brenda and family, your beloved mother is now in the Lord's presence. She is not in pain, she is not sad, she is with her loved ones that went before her. Although you will miss her greatly, and words cannot take away the pain at this time, know that the greatest joy you can bring to her memory is to live the best Christian life possible to be a witness of her great love and example to you. You have been in my prayers and will continue to be. I grieve with you. Your sister in Christ, Vivian.
