

Frankie Ray Edmiaston

April 28, 1925 - April 23, 2021

Frank Ray Edmiaston(Frankie) of Corsicana, TX passed away peacefully at home on April 23, 2021. Frank was born on April 28, 1925 in Hollis, OK to Fannie and Homer Edmiaston. Frank proudly served our country in the US Army during WWII. He was honored with a Purple Heart, Oak Leaf Cluster, three Bronze Stars, and several other recognitions of service. His stories from the war and life after were very entertaining to those close to him. Frank's later years saw him live a calm and easy life. If you didn't find him sitting on the porch enjoying the company of neighbors or the local squirrels, he would be in front of the television watching his old westerns, wheel of fortune, and never missing wrestling.

Frank was preceded in death by his father Homer, mother Fannie, brothers Alvin, Brent, Troy, and Virgil, sisters Lilly, Pauline, Myrtle, and daughter Donna Parsons. He is survived by his sister Georgia Camp of Altus , OK, granddaughter, caregiver, and biggest advocate Shannon Wilkins and husband Mike of Corsicana, TX, grandson Tracey Mooneyhan and wife Jeanette of Canton, TX, great-grandchildren Taylor Wilkins and wife Alexa of Annapolis, MD, Matthew Wilkins and wife Demi of Jacksonville, TX, and Emily Wilkins of Corsicana,TX, long time neighbor and friend Linda Schaffer of Corsicana, TX, and his newest story listening buddy Mason Avery of Corsicana, TX.

“ Frank was the sweetest person to me. We were neighbors for a long time. I would plant mine and his flowers every year he loved the morning glories. He loved a good hamburger, he'd call me...want a burger I'll buy if you go get'em so i would. We always had such good talks together. He always told me if i needed anything just to let him know and i knew that came from his heart. We always told each other that we loved one another when we said good by and we knew that each meant it. I will miss him so much but I will see him again when we meet in Heaven. Love you 🌹
