“ I met Freddie when I was 17 years old in 1977, he was installing a 396 into a blue chevy swb pick up at Lee Prichard's gulf station. Alot of older guys didn't like kids hanging around. But Freddie was always good to me, he taught me a lot while he built that pick up, he told stories about his 65 GTO, which influenced me loving Pontiacs, later he got my 68 Camaro and painted it yellow. I moved away and lost contact. But I remember him like it was yesterday and will always be his friend. RIP Freddie
